

The Revenge of Eggman

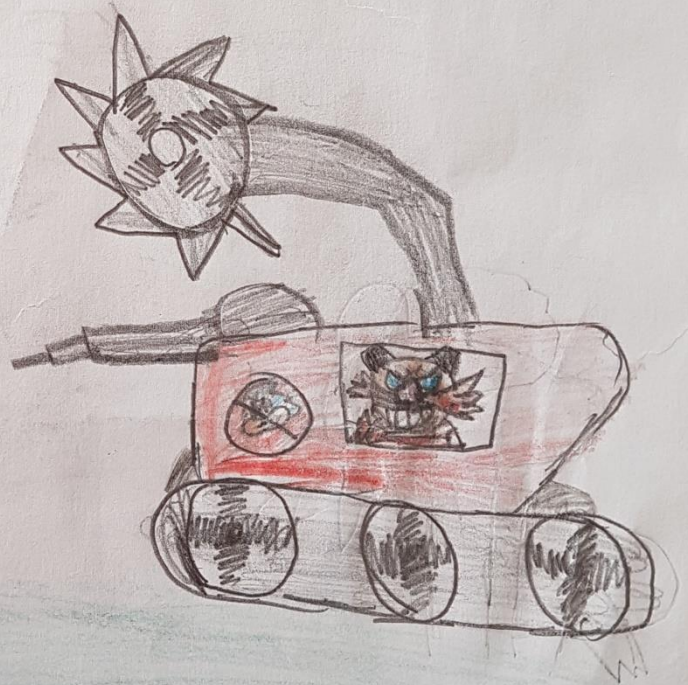

By Harbin

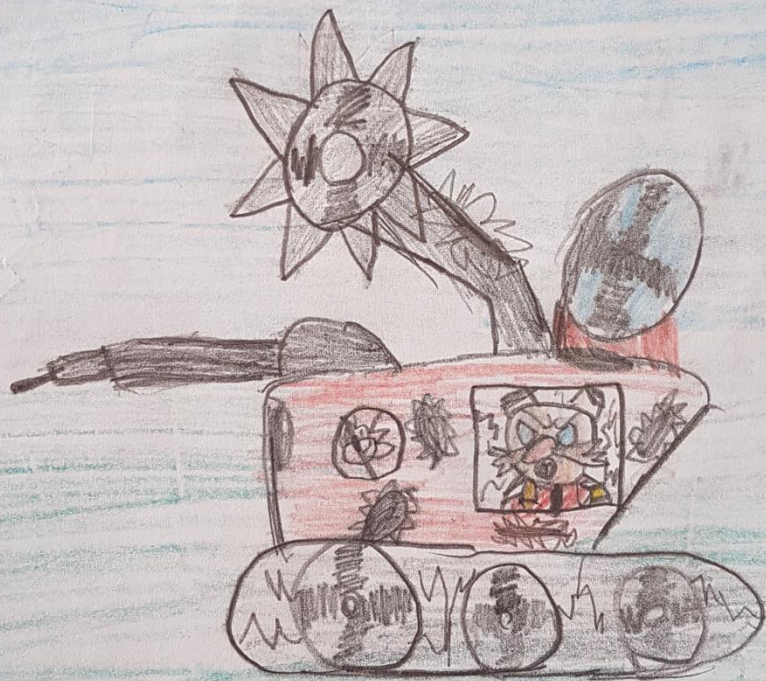

"Hello and welcome back to book 2 of Sonic the Hedgehog". In our last adventure, Sonic or shall I say Super Sonic just defeated Eggman, but... that was not the real ending to our last adventure. So, lets zoom in and see what happened after Eggman fell off the cliff. Then, Super Sonic flew back to the rock where he found the seven diamonds, so that he could turn back to his normal self, but to do that he had say 'Chaos Control'. So that is what he did and turned back to Blue Sonic. But ...Sonic was tired so he took a nap on the rock. After a few hours ,a slight rumble shook the rock that Sonic was resting on.

Sonic thought it was just the wind, so he kept sleeping but then...the shake got louder and louder. Sonic said to him self, "Now its definitely not the wind!" But before he could get into action, the trees got cut down!!! Sonic was shocked. Suddenly, a giant Chainsaw cut its way out of the trees. Next, came some lazer guns. All of it was on a red tank which was driven by a bald man with a brown moustache and a pink nose.

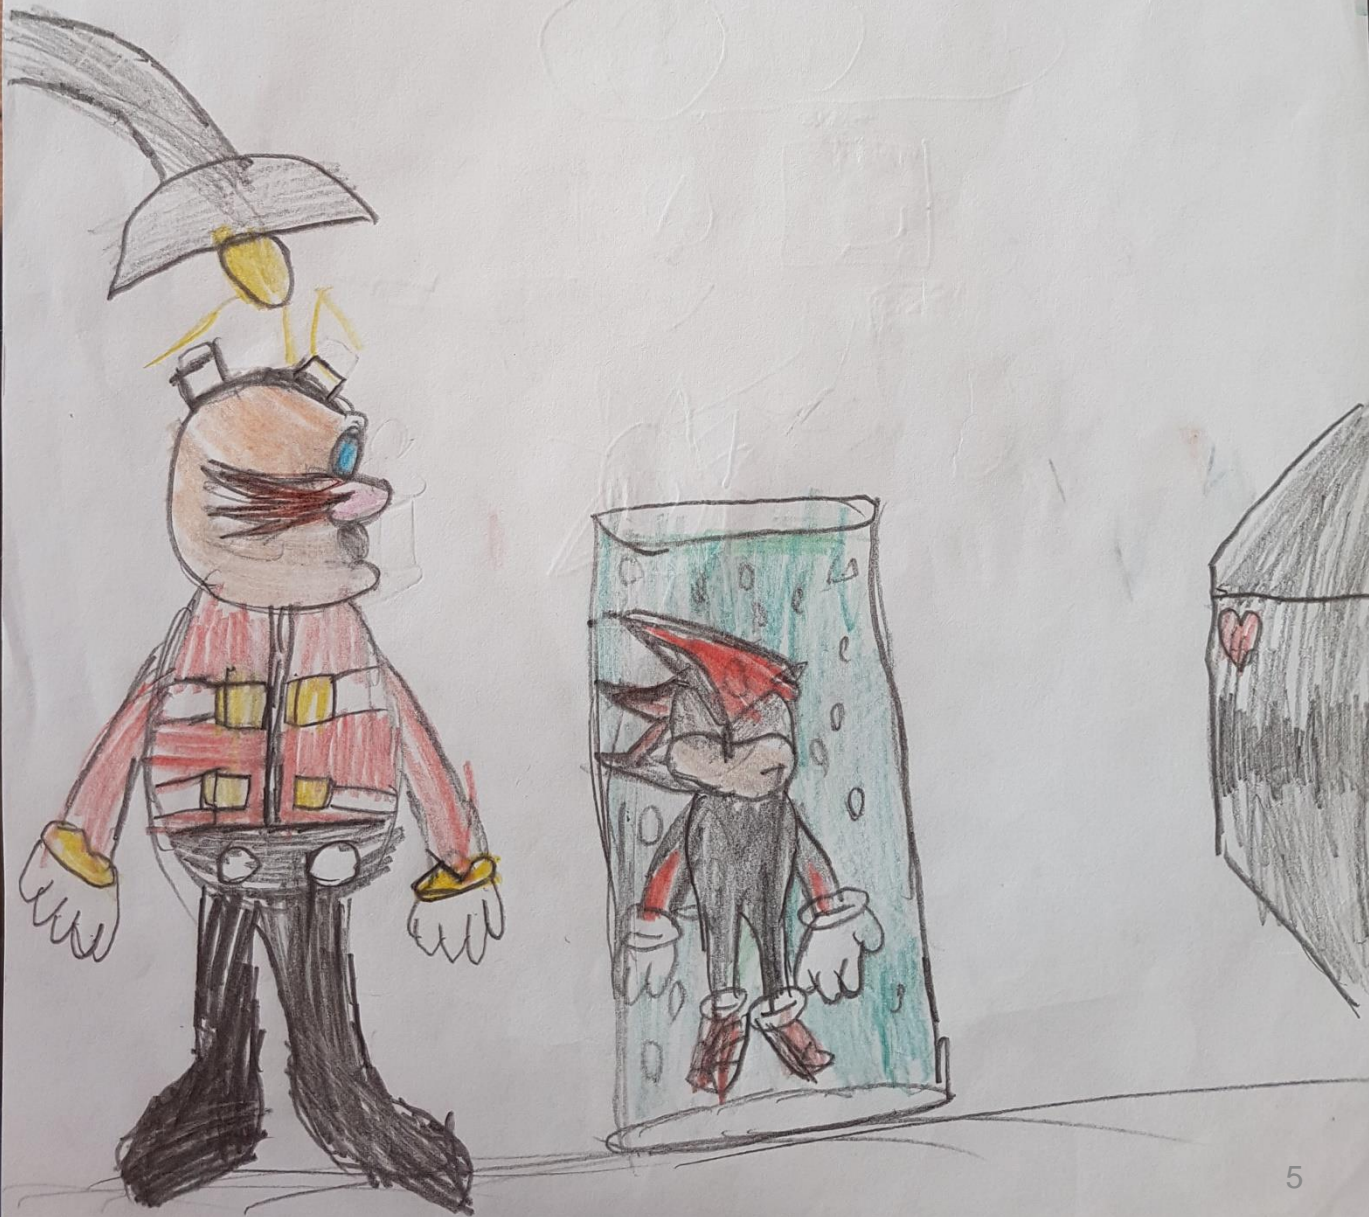

Sonic recognised the man , it was Egg man! "Not you" screamed Sonic, then Eggman said "Yes Me". Sonic was not surprised. "No one defeats me and runs off" said Eggman busting with frustration. "Oh, is that true" said Sonic. He rolled in a ball and started spinning with all his might . Then, he went right for the attack.

He span through Egg man's tank hundreds and hundreds of times until it was covered with holes. Then, he jumped out of the tank and landed safely on the grass. But what happened with Eggman's tank? Well, get comfortable coz you are about to find out. When Sonic's feet touched the ground ,Eggman's tank exploded and so, Eggman got blasted the second time!

But, he said to Sonic "This is not the last of me". If you see sonic x (which is a name of a sonic cartoon), whenever Eggman says some thing like this, Sonic will always win.

But, this time it was the opposite. Eggman had come up with the perfect revenge. When he crashed right into his base, from the smack which Sonic gave him, he decided to use Sonic's moves back on Sonic. But, he could not make another Sonic, he thought for hours and hours, what to do? At that very moment, Eggman realised that he cant make another Sonic, but can create a hedgehog that will have same moves like Sonic, but also some totally new moves as his own. So, as you can imagine Eggman's goal is to get rid of Sonic once and for all. So, he spent days thinking about how to make his own hedgehog. Finally, he came up with a plan. So, for days he was working on his secret weapon, named "Shadow the hedgehog". Days went on, Eggman carried on creating Shadow, but for Sonic, it was not going well.

You see, Eggman has been attacking Sonic for so long. Sonic got used to it but this time he did not attack. So Sonic got bored, then... he heard something but he thought it was just the wind, so he stayed where he was. But, it came again and again, "I've had enough of it" said our hero as he followed the sound, but when he reached there, he was shocked. He was looking at what he had never seen before.

He walked over to the red creature and said "Who are you?" "Oh, Hi there, my name is Knuckles" said the red creature. "My name is Sonic, Sonic the hedgehog" said Sonic. But before they could say another word, the ground started to shake! Eggman had completed making Shadow and was ready to strike back! "Who's that" asked Knuckles, ready to fight. "That's Egg man" said Sonic. But, this time Sonic and Knuckles saw that there was another Hedgehog! Who in the world is that? , said Knuckles. "I don't know" said Sonic. "But I do know that this is not good" said Sonic. "HA HA HA" laughed Eggman. "Hi Sonic, meet Shadow", said Eggman. "I told you that I'll be back and now its time for revenge, ATTACK" shouted Eggman.

All of his robots, including Shadow ran to attack. Sonic span around and then went for attack too. He had destroyed most robots but there were more and those Knuckles took down. It all came down to this Sonic vs Shadow. "I'm not letting you do any worse, Shadow !!!" said Sonic angrily.

They frowned at each other for a minute, then the fight began. Sonic punched but shadow did the exact same. Sonic span and so did Shadow. Whatever Sonic did, Shadow did it too. Sonic turned and looked at Eggman, being impressed. "You sure did a good job Egg head, but I am gonna destroy this Shadow guy once and for all", said Sonic. "I wouldn't be so sure about that", said Eggman. "Whatever you do, Shadow will do the same", added Eggman. Then, Sonic had an idea, he looked at the rock, where the seven Chaos emeralds were found and then looked back at Shadow. He took two steps back and then shouted, "Chaos Control!!". The seven Chaos emeralds came floating to Sonic and then the blue fur on Sonic turned yellowish golden, turning him into Super Sonic.

But, when super Sonic looked back at Shadow, Shadow said, "Ha ha ha", then, Shadow said, "Chaos Control" and the most unbelievable thing happened. Shadow's black fur turned into yellowish golden fur and Super Shadow was born. "What's going on now, am I dreaming?" said Super Sonic. "You see Sonic, I gave Shadow the power to turn into Super Shadow and destroy you once and for all", said Eggman.

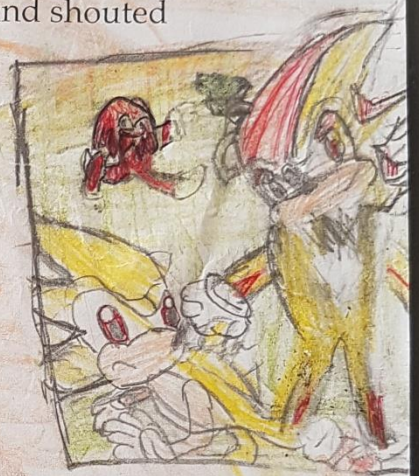

"Enough chit chat, are we gonna fight or what", said Super Shadow. "Your on" said Super Sonic. Super Sonic blasted hundreds of fire balls but Super Shadow dodged them all. After that, Super Shadow blasted a lightning bolt right at Super Sonic and hit him, but luckily Super Sonic teleported behind Super Shadow and shot fire balls at his back, Eggman was impressed.

But, Super Shadow got up from the ground and said, "You are more pathetic then ever." Super Sonic got mad and shot a beam right to Super Shadow but he dogded it. Super Sonic did it again and Super Shadow dodged it again. Super Sonic looked at Knuckles, they both were thinking the same thing. Super Sonic tried to punch Super Shadow but Super Shadow teleported behind Super Sonic. At that moment, Knuckles jumped up and punched Super Shadow right at the back. Super Shadow didn't look tired at all.

Super Shadow rolled into a ball and spun right for attack. Knuckles slammed the ground with his fist and a blast hit Super Shadow but Super Shadow didn't care about Knuckles, so he just ran to Super Sonic and punched him "You used to be the fastest in the world but now I am the fastest" said Super Shadow. "Hold on" said Knuckles "I'll get help". So, Knuckles ran as fast as he could and after a few minutes, he reached a very big, green gem. It was called a "Master Emerald" and was placed in concrete. Knuckles lifted it, suddenly the whole island began to fall back where Super Sonic, Super Shadow and doctor Eggman were. Eggman quickly grabbed Super Shadow's hand and shouted Retreat!!!

As soon as they were gone Knuckles placed the master emerald back where it was and Super Sonic said "Chaos Control" and returned back to his normal self. After that, Sonic ran super fast to Knuckles and saw the Master Emerald, "What's that?" asked Sonic in surprise "Oh, this is a Master Emerald, it is the one what keeps the power of the Emeralds stable" said Knuckles. "Well" said Sonic "We both deserve a little rest."
